Falconbridge Has “Good Buzz” Why not volunteer to make it even better?

Message from the president

The other day as I was talking with a recent acquaintance, I happened to mention that I live in Falconbridge. Her immediate reaction was that she has heard so many good things about the neighborhood. She even expressed a little regret that she had not known about Falconbridge when she bought her house a couple of years ago. Although always gratifying, her very positive reaction was not unusual in my experience. Our neighborhood has a very good buzz out there in the Triangle.

Behind Falconbridge’s great reputation is the work and dedication of a lot of volunteers. Everything that happens here—from potlucks and pubs, to 4th of July Parades, to overseeing the current renovations to Clubhouse—is the result of neighbors helping neighbors. Neighbors who care about Falconbridge and are willing to work to make it better for all of us.

We need your help to keep things moving forward. The Alliance Board of Directors needs one or two more people to fill its roster. The Board meets on the second Tuesday of the month at 7:00 p.m. at the clubhouse. Why don’t you come and check us out? Guests are always welcome and you will find that we run efficient meetings and have some fun in the process. Being on the Alliance Board is a great way to give back to the neighborhood.

If you haven’t renewed your Alliance membership for 2015 it is not too late. In fact, we would love to have you join today. There is a membership application in this newsletter. Please return it right away.

It has been my privilege to serve as President of the Alliance Board. As I leave this month for Arizona, I will always have a fond place in my heart for Falconbridge.

Best regards,
Nancy

The Rack – A Pool Team in the Making

When was the last time you brought your better half to a local pub for an afternoon/luncheon outing? Bailey's Sports Grille, located in Ram's Plaza off Fordham Blvd (very close by), offers a fun atmosphere for Falconbridge residents who enjoy kicking up their heels. A very inviting game room offering billiards, ping pong, darts, and shuffleboard — as well as a good assortment of Pub food at a reasonable price. Come join your neighbors each 3rd Tuesday of the month between 11:00 am - 2:00 pm where "all" play is FREE and pint drafts are $2.00. Falconbridge Alliance membership is not required (although membership is encouraged).

Time to Get Back Into the SWIM of Things

Imagine this...

A warm summer day... you relaxing beside the pool... Despite the ice and snow outside, yes, summer will come. When it does, one of the things that makes Falconbridge a great place to live, our community pool, will be waiting for you.

The 88,000-gallon L-shaped swimming pool has lap lanes and a large 3-foot shallow section for young pre-swimmers. The pool deck is furnished for sunbathing on chaises or lounging under the sunshade, and gas grills are available on the upper deck for family dinners. The pool was newly lined and tiled in 2012 and is maintained by a professional pool service company. All lifeguards are Red Cross certified.

Pool season kicks off this year on Saturday, May 16, with the annual Pool Opening party, to which all Falconbridge residents are invited. We (FHA and the Alliance) provide the hotdogs, hamburgers, and beverages; you bring a favorite covered dish to share. The pool will stay open through the summer and into mid-September. If you like to swim, but the normal pool hours don't fit your schedule, the popular Dawn-to-Dusk Swim program will again be available.

The pool is available to all townhome residents — an amenity included in their monthly $259 monthly assessment — and to single-family home residents who pay an annual membership fee. Guest passes for your visitors (up to 5 at a time) are available for $5 each. Rates this year are unchanged from 2014. The FHA Board did a thorough survey of "our competition." After comparing larger and smaller facilities in the area — some newer or some older than our pool — we concluded our rates were actually a bargain. The newer facilities — like the pools in Meadowmont and Woodcroft — offered amenities we don't, but at prices roughly double ours. Besides, what value do you place on convenience?

The pool membership application will be available in mid-March. See 2015 Pool Information: falconbridgealliance.org/pool/

Flush with the excitement of progress

Clubhouse Bathroom Renovation:

Notes from a delighted volunteer project coordinator:

"...Epoxy Flooring started yesterday.

"First they ground the floor smooth with a machine grinder, you can still see the tile pattern. Then they fastened a plastic bead at the top of the coved base.

Then they mixed light brown sand and epoxy and troweled it into a coved base using a special tool. Then they mixed the first epoxy floor application, troweled it on top of the tile and then rolled it with a paint roller until perfectly smooth. Lastly they spread sand over the epoxy to create the non-slip grit surface. The next two applications will first apply the colored chips to the base and then the floor. Once completed painting will resume the week of March 2.

"It was fun to watch and they are doing a terrific job."

CAREGIVERS AND US:

Resources for caregivers, their parents and themselves.

There has been interest expressed in this general topic which we, as a community, can address through educational presentations and discussion groups. We are interested in knowing how many folks are interested in this topic and of those, how many would be willing to assist with this project. Please email Paula at paulaclarke@nc.rr.com.

The Falconbridge Friends volunteers are working with three teams at this time. New volunteers are welcome. Most frequent needs are social support and transportation. This group helps to make our neighborhood unique. Please remember that our younger neighbors as well as more elderly folks are most welcome to use this confidential resource. Telephone Tax Scam & “Phishing” emails

IRS phoney lawsuit scam

A telephone tax scam has been reported by Falconbridge resident and CPA Julie Martin.

She recently got a call from a number labeled “New York” on her caller ID (315) 635-9781. Julie writes that “The message is from a very stern recorded woman’s voice informing me that the IRS has filed a lawsuit against me, and I must call this number to discuss: 2062012044.

“I will not be calling either of these numbers, and none of you should either.

“I can assure you that I am fine with the IRS. I deal with them on a daily basis as part of my job. This is a scam. The IRS never deals with taxpayers like this in reality. The IRS has put out many cautions on various scams recently, and the news media has been pretty good about covering them. It is the first time I’ve heard of the scammer leaving a message, though. I guess they have to because I don’t answer my phone any more unless I am absolutely sure who is calling me.

“In the old days, fraud like this would be prosecuted, but in these days not so. Very sad that the authorities do not really do anything besides the occasional press release warning the public. The police told my last client that had this happen just to not answer their phone any more unless they were certain who was calling them. I guess you can be a successful criminal as long as you just use the computer or a phone to do your dirty work.

“Another warning, neighbors...”

Thank you, Julie.

Anthem Health Care email scam

Second, Larry Charny forwards this warning from Kristin Keckeisen of the AARP’s Fraud Watch Network about “phishing” emails directed at Anthem Health Care customers. Anthem, as you probably remember, recently suffered a data breach that gave cyber criminals access to personal information on more than 80 million customers. That information included names, Social Security numbers, birth dates, addresses and more.

Now some of those customers are receiving emails that appear to be from Anthem. These emails include a “click here” link for credit monitoring. These emails are NOT from Anthem; if you receive one, do not click on links, open attachments, or respond in any way.

Please see tips to help prevent fraud in the sidebar.

Good advice. Let’s be careful out there.

TIPS to protect you from fraud

We know it’s hard to keep up with all the bad news on data breaches, but it is important to act quickly if you think your personal information may have been compromised. Consider these tips:

- Take advantage of the free credit monitoring service Anthem is offering affected individuals. Anthem has established a web site where its current and former members can receive more information: www.AnthemFacts.com. It has also set up a toll-free number for consumers: 1-877-263-7995.
- Request your free credit report and check for any fraudulent activity at AnnualCreditReport.com or call 1-877-322-8228.
- Review your bank account and credit card statements closely to see if any unusual activity has taken place.
- Be alert and file your income taxes as soon as possible, so scammers can’t use your personal information to file in your name and grab your refund.

A Friendly Reminder to Falconbridge Neighbors:

All single family and townhome properties in Falconbridge are subject to legally recorded restrictive covenants. Please see the July 2014 issue of the Newsletter at <http://www.falconbridgealliance.org/app/download/9179126871/July+2014+newsletter.pdf?t=1423002422> for a quick review.

Any improvements – such as fences, walls, decks, outbuildings, home additions, clearing of trees, etc. – to single family properties must first be approved by the Alliance Board

Falconbridge Alliance film “society” takes shape

Mike Mayo and Larry Charny would like to continue to advance the idea that Falconbridge Alliance members form a film “society.” To date

18 people have indicated interest in this cinematic adventure. As previously posted, the details of how the “society” would operate would grow out of its membership. It is anticipated that the first screening will be mid-April as details are worked out with regard to voting on the selection of film, the testing of quality of projection and sound, and the freshness of the popcorn. (A sommelier is being consulted to rate the soft drinks.)

Again:

- We would meet once a month for a screening of a film
- The film to be presented would be selected by members from a list developed by members
- Each film presented will have an informative introduction and after the showings there will be a discussion
- Films will be shown at the Chelsea Theatre using their state-of-the-art projection system.
- Showings will be either late Saturday/Sunday mornings or early Monday – Friday afternoons.
- Popcorn and soda will be available, free of charge.

- The cost: a mere $10.00 per person – if we can guarantee at least twenty film society members at each showing.

If you are interested in what promises to be a very special and very enjoyable Falconbridge experience, please contact Mike Mayo (mikemay1@verizon.net) or Larry Charny (thecharnygroup@gmail.com). Comments and suggestions are encouraged.

Do you want to give all this up, knowing the newsletter is only available to members of the Falconbridge Alliance? Talk amongst yourselves. Then join the Falconbridge Alliance.

● ● GARDENING TIPS • Advice from Falconbridge's "DOYEN OF DIRT"

CHIPS FROM A CRACKED POT

Check your soil

If you are planning to till the garden soil this spring, grab a handful of dirt first and squeeze it. If it holds together in a tight ball, it is too wet, and, if you turn the soil over in that condition, your first harvest of the season will be a bumper crop of dirt clods. Check the pH of the soil as well with a soil test.

When/what to prune

Late winter to early spring is prime pruning time for many woody ornamentals, but remember that not all trees and shrubs benefit from a shearing/pruning at this time of year. Wait until after their flowers have faded to snip early-blooming beauties such as azalea, camellia (japonica), Carolina jessamine, forsythia, flowering quince, spirea, lorapetulum, viburnum, mock orange, weigela.

For berry displays next fall and winter, ornamental berry-producing plants such as holly, nandina, and beautyberry should be pruned before new growth begins. For more flower power this summer, prune woody ornamentals such as abelia, buddleia, althea, crepe myrtle (don't "murder" the crepes), summersweet, vitex, that set blooms off of new growth.

Time to Plant

Remove winter mulch from around roses and replace with fresh; remove protective winter mulch from tender perennials and replace, being careful not to cover any new growth. Carrots, lettuce, parsley, radishes, turnips and spinach can be planted a few weeks before the last average frost date.

— Mary McClure

● ● FOR YOUR DINING PLEASURE • Falconbridge Foodies go to Asia

We are fortunate to have a wealth of choices when it comes to cuisine from Asia. Recently, a couple of foodie friends and I have eaten at Chinese, Korean and Japanese restaurants and they are very good.

First up is the classic Hong Kong style called Dim Sum at the most appropriately named Hong Kong Chinese Restaurant, a long-lived restaurant on Guess Rd., in north Durham. Dim Sum is typically small portions (a la tapas) served usually off rolling carts (or sometimes the menu) from which to choose an array of meat and vegetable dumplings, greens, various meats, sticky rice, and much more. They also have a full "normal" menu as well.

Staying in China, two tasty places deserve your attention and hunger. The China Express, at 2223 NC 54 just east of NC55, is a terrific stop that serves authentic Chinese and Korean noodle soups (Jan Pong) with fish and shrimp and/or chicken along with a full menu of Sechuan and Hunan dishes and house specialties.

In Carrboro, at 301 E. Main St., is Gourmet Kingdom, rated recently as the best in the area. I wholeheartedly concur. Its selection is astounding and the quality is high. Check out its reviews and I am sure you will want to visit soon.

Just across the East China Sea is Korea and here in Chapel Hill a new Korean restaurant called Mixed is located on East Franklin near Estes Road. It is surprisingly good given you go through a line and they put your meal together as you wish from classic meat and veggie choices. I recommend the Bibimbap served in a hot stone pot.

And finally, across the Sea of Japan at the corner of Jones Ferry and W. Main St. in Carrboro is Akai Hana. It has been in that location for a long time and still serves fine sushi and sashimi along with tasty udon, seaweed salads and other Japanese cuisine.

The list of vendors has been assembled by volunteers based on reports of good service from Falconbridge residents. It was created solely for the convenience of residents. The list is not curated and there is no follow up with the vendors. It is possible that these vendors later gave poor service to another resident, but that service was not reported.
